

Fundy Biosphere

UNESCO Biosphere Regions are places where people share a way of living with nature that builds a future we're proud of. We model solutions for a sustainable future, celebrate cultural and biological diversity, and empower people to engage with one another and with nature in healthier ways. Fundy Biosphere Region contributes to building vibrant and resilient human and environmental communities through conservation and promotion of sustainable development in the Upper Bay of Fundy region.

Fundy Biosphere Region is looking for enthusiastic Project and Outreach Officers for Summer 2022 to help showcase the biosphere to the world. If you have an adventurous spirit, a love for nature, and an appreciation for the strength of the tides of the Bay of Fundy, we'd love to hear from you.

When you join the FBR team, you will interact with the public to provide information about the Fundy Biosphere Region, help organize and run events, and support staff in various projects like tree planting, trail monitoring and beach clean ups. This position is only open to applicants under 30 years old, as it is funded through federal and provincial youth wage funding. Positions are available for St. Martins, the Fundy Region and Moncton-Riverview-Dieppe, please indicate which you are interested in when you apply.

Responsibilities:

- Familiarize yourself with the biosphere's mission, vision, and projects
- Communicate with the public about the FBR and our projects
- Assist in public engagement events and projects within the biosphere where applicable
- Participate in field work, including tree planting, trail monitoring, and garbage cleanups

Experience and Knowledge:

- Knowledge of the Fundy Biosphere Region (Upper Bay of Fundy), the Bay of Fundy's tides, and the natural environment
- Experience communicating with the public
- Experience working in a team and within a remote setting and/or outside

Required Qualifications:

- Able to communicate effectively online and in person
- Ability to work with others and as well as independently

Asset Qualifications

- Bilingual in both official languages
- First Aid
- Residing within the Fundy Biosphere Region

Term and rate: Weekdays and some Evenings/Weekends, 35h per week, remuneration based on experience.
